FROM THE PRIEST

At my previous assignment (St. Vincent de Paul in Mount Vernon and St. Luke in Danville), there is a stained glass window of the Good Shepherd that I love in St. Vincent's, and would see that window whenever I celebrated Mass. It reminded me of Our Lord's care for all of us and reminded me whether or not I reciprocated that love in my priesthood.

I also wondered if being a shepherd to lambs would be hard... in fact, there were some parishioners at St. Luke who had sheep pastures, and they knew it was no easy task – they invited me to their farm to see the sheep and I tried to corral them together, and couldn't even get one sheep to look at me!

Shepherding was one of the oldest jobs in Israel and looking after sheep was no easy calling as herds were huge (in the thousands) and taking care of them was no easy task. Many would stray and predators would try to hunt them for food. Shepherds would lay their lives down to protect their sheep and even took turns watching them overnight. The shepherds would be with their sheep 24/7 and the sheep would know their shepherd down to their voice.

The Old Testament uses this analogy of shepherd and sheep where God is the shepherd and the people as the sheep. Christ told His disciples that He was the Good Shepherd; whenever someone was in need, He was willing to do whatever it takes to care and love them.

Christ is truly the shepherd and guardian of our souls (1 Peter 2:25) and in Christ we see God's love ready to embrace us all, but do we open our hearts and our lives totally to Him?

May we know the joy and peace of a life freely open to Jesus who is ready to give us graces and assistance!

- Pray for Pope Francis, Bishop Fernandes and all the priests and religious of our diocese!
- Pray for those affected by natural disasters and acts of violence (Middle East; Ukraine; Wildfires burning in eastern Canada; assassination attempt of Former President Trump; those enduring the aftermath of Hurricane Beryl)
- Congratulations to Joseph and Sara Keating who were married Saturday; may they be blessed, united as one, and as they start a family together!
- A reminder that our Homecoming Festival is August 9&10! Details are in the bulletin.
- Next weekend is the World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly; we will have a special blessing at all the Masses.

– Fr. Vince

DEL SACERDOTE

En mi asignación anterior (San Vicente de Paúl en Mount Vernon y San Lucas en Danville), hay un vitral del Buen Pastor que me encanta en San Vicente, y veía esa ventana cada vez que celebraba Misa. Me recordó el cuidado de Nuestro Señor por todos nosotros y me recordó si correspondí o no ese amor en mi sacerdocio.

También me preguntaba si sería difícil ser pastor de corderos... de hecho, había algunos feligreses de St. Luke que tenían pastos para ovejas y sabían que no era una tarea fácil; me invitaron a su granja para ver las ovejas y yo. ¡Traté de acorralarlos juntos y ni siquiera pude lograr que una oveja me mirara!

El pastoreo era uno de los trabajos más antiguos en Israel y cuidar de las ovejas no era una tarea fácil ya que los rebaños eran enormes (miles) y cuidarlas no era una tarea fácil. Muchos se extraviarían y los depredadores intentarían cazarlos para alimentarse. Los pastores daban sus vidas para proteger a sus ovejas e incluso se turnaban para cuidarlas durante la noche. Los pastores estarían con sus ovejas las 24 horas del día, los 7 días de la semana y las ovejas conocerían a su pastor hasta el fondo de su voz.

El Antiguo Testamento usa esta analogía del pastor y las ovejas donde Dios es el pastor y el pueblo como las ovejas. Cristo dijo a sus discípulos que Él era el Buen Pastor; Cada vez que alguien lo necesitaba, Él estaba dispuesto a hacer lo que fuera necesario para cuidarlo y amarlo.

Cristo es verdaderamente el pastor y guardián de nuestras almas (1 Pedro 2:25) y en Cristo vemos el amor de Dios listo para abrazarnos a todos, pero ¿abrimos nuestro corazón y nuestra vida totalmente a Él? ¿Que podamos conocer la alegría y la paz de una vida abierta libremente a Jesús, que está dispuesto a darnos gracias y asistencia!

- ¡Oremos por el Papa Francisco, el obispo Fernandes y todos los sacerdotes y religiosos de nuestra diócesis!
- Oren por los afectados por desastres naturales y actos de violencia (Oriente Medio; Ucrania; incendios forestales en el este de Canadá; intento de asesinato del expresidente Trump; aquellos que sufren las secuelas del huracán Beryl)
- Felicitaciones a Joseph y Sara Keating que se casaron el sábado; ¡Que sean bendecidos, unidos como uno y que formen una familia juntos!
- ¡Un recordatorio de que nuestro Festival de Bienvenida es el 9 y 10 de agosto! Los detalles están en el boletín.
- El próximo fin de semana es el Día Mundial de los Abuelos y las Personas Mayores; Tendremos una bendición especial en todas las Misas.

– P. Vince
